

IALM Scientific Committee (2013 – 2015)

Professor Morris V. Tidball-Binz (Argentina)

Morris V. Tidball-Binz M.D. (Chile, Argentina (dual nationality), b. 1957) is the Forensic Coordinator of the Assistance Division of the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC), based in Geneva, Switzerland.

He graduated from the National University of La Plata, Argentina (1989) and specialized in the application of forensic anthropology and medicine to human rights and humanitarian investigations.

He helped found the Argentine Forensic Anthropology Team, an organization dedicated primarily to the forensic search, recovery and identification of victims of armed violence and was its first director, from 1984 to 1990; served as technical advisor, from 1984 to 1989, for the Grand-Mothers of Plaza de Mayo (a non-governmental organization –NGO- of families of the disappeared in Argentina), for the establishment of a national genetic data-bank for the identification of missing children in Argentina; was Researcher for Chile, Mexico, Venezuela and Central America at the Americas Department of Amnesty International's International Secretariat in London, UK (1990-1995) and then Head of that Department (1996-1997); directed the Regional Programme for the Prevention of Torture of the Inter-American Institute for Human Rights in Costa Rica (1998-1999); founded and was first director of the Latin-America Regional Office of Penal Reform International (NGO), also in Costa Rica (2000-2001); directed the Human Rights Defenders Office of the International Service for Human Rights (NGO), Geneva, Switzerland (2001-2003) and also directed that organisation during 2003, before joining the ICRC in 2004.

He has carried out forensic case-work applied to human rights and humanitarian investigations in over 40 countries in all regions and is actively involved in training and dissemination world-wide of applied forensic sciences.

His publications include manuals, articles and contributions in the fields of medical documentation of torture; monitoring prison conditions; forensic investigations into the missing and the management of human remains in armed conflicts and catastrophes.

He is a member of the Presidium and Scientific Committee of the International Academy of Legal Medicine (IALM); a member of the Advisory Board of Cameron Forensic Medical Sciences, University of London; of Board Member of the Academy of Forensic Medical Sciences (AFMS) and a Board Member of the US Scientific Working Group on Disaster Victim Identification (SWGDIV) and is an associate member of the American Academy of Forensic Sciences (Forensic Anthropology Section), as well as an International Consulting Editor of "Medicine, Science and the Law" and of the "Revista Española de Medicina Legal".

Home 4 Chemin des Fleurs, 01210, Ferney-Voltaire, France. +33 450 40 7797

Work International Committee of the Red Cross, 19 Avenue de la Paix, 1202, Geneva, Switzerland. +41 22 730 2389

Mobile +41 79 244 6406

e-mail mtidballbinz@icrc.org